

2021 Cajun Heritage Fest
Booth Application

The Southeast Texas Arts Council invites you to participate in the Sixth Annual Cajun Heritage Fest scheduled for June 5, 2021, at the Carl A. Parker Multipurpose Center located at 1800 Lakeside Drive in Port Arthur. Gates will open at 11:30 a.m. Set-up begins no earlier than 9:00 a.m., and all booth participants must be ready for business by 10:30 a.m. All booth participants are required to provide proof of insurance. There is a $100 deposit/charge for a booth that is due with the submission of this form by May 10, 2021. Booth space measures approximately 10' X 12'. Power supply will be limited but available. You must agree to maintain your booth through the entirety of the festival and will be expected to leave your area clear of debris. This is an indoor event, so there will be restrictions as to what food may be prepared indoors. No propane tanks or fryers will be allowed inside. You must provide your own tables, chairs, signage, and electrical extension cords. There is a limited amount of space outdoors for food vendors to cook and carry indoors. Availability will be based on first come, first served.

If you plan to sell food, please contact SETAC to determine that your product will not compete with other food vendors. Vendors who provide their deposit/payment for space earliest have first rights of product sold.

Please complete the following form and return via United States Postal Service to SETAC, P.O. Box 3925, Beaumont, TX 77704 no later than May 10, 2021.
